Herman Mashaba

DA Johannesburg Mayoral Candidate

Register to Vote: it's the first step to bring change to Jo'burg

17 February 2016

Johannesburg is the heart of South Africa's economy and should be the driver for growth and job opportunities – but Jo'burg is not living up to its potential.

Over the years, the ANC has taken advantage of voters' trust to line their own pockets, and give opportunities to their cronies.

Voters have the power to stand up against corruption, crime, unemployment, and poor service delivery.

Registration will take place across the city on 5 and 6 March 2016, and registration is the first step to bring change to Johannesburg.

As of today thousands of DA registration posters will be put up around Johannesburg, where we call on eligible voters to register to vote, and to vote DA in the local government elections.

To be able to vote, eligible voters need to be registered in the ward in which they currently live. Voters who have moved since the last election must re-register in order to vote.

Johannesburg's people have the power to hire and fire their government, but can only make your voices heard by registering to vote.

If Johannesburg works, South Africa works.

Be the voice of change, be part of the change, because where the DA governs, life improves.

Register for Change on 5 and 6 March 2016.
